

2022 Political Activity Report

Introduction

News Corp Political Activities Policy

2022 Disbursements from News Corporation PAC

2022 Corporate Political Contributions

Trade Associations

Contributions to 501(c)(4)s

Lobbying Activity

Philanthropy

Introduction

News Corp believes that transparency around engagement with governments is good for our business, our employees and our investors. This Political Activity

Trade Associations

News Corp and its business units maintain memberships in relevant industry trade organizations to advance the Company's commercial and policy objectives. These groups represent multiple members and thus may not always align perfectly with our positions. We believe that, on balance, News Corp's participation in these organizations provides great value.

Based upon information reported to us for 2022, the amount of the Company's payments to these organizations attributable to lobbying and political activity was approximately $236,778.

The trade associations to which News Corp paid more than $25,000 in dues in 2022 are listed below.

News Media Alliance
Digital Content Next
Association of American Publishers
Interactive Advertising Bureau

Contributions to 501(c)(4)s

News Corp and its business units made contributions to the following 501(c)(4) in 2022.

Copyright Alliance

Lobbying Activity

News Corp engages in lobbying activity on important public policy issues at the federal and state levels through the work of Company employees and outside consultants. We believe that by communicating with government officials, we help improve policy in a way that benefits the Company and its stockholders.

In 2022, News Corp's lobbying expenses at the federal level and in the state and local jurisdictions in which it is registered, totaled $874,000. These expenses include relevant portions of salaries, travel expenses and outside

